4. Policy Statement

- 4.1 All members of the Board of Management must, in exercising functions in that capacity, act in the interests of the charity (Charities Act 2005 66 (1)).
- 4.2. Board members must seek to ensure that the College acts in a manner consistent with its purposes.
- 4.3. Board members must act with care and diligence, and put the interests of the College before those of another organisation or person.
- 4.4 Where any other duty prevents the Board member from putting the interests of the College before those of another organisation or person, the member must disclose the conflicting interest, and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other charity trustees with respect to the matter in question.
- 4.5 All Board members will strive to avoid any conflict of interest between the interests of the College on the one hand, and personal, professional, and business interests on the other. This includes avoiding actual conflicts of interest as well as the perception of conflicts of interest.

5. Definitions with Examples

(Ref. oscr.org.uk).

- 5.1 A conflict of interest is any situation where there is a potential for a charity trustee's personal or business interests (or the interests of someone they are connected with) to be different from the interests of the charity. In this situation, it may sometimes be difficult for the charity trustee to make an impartial decision. However, with proper handling charity trustees can overcome these difficulties.

- 5.2 There are two main types of conflict of interest:

- i. Appointment conflict: This is a conflict of interest which can arise between a charity trustee and the person or organisation which appointed them.

For example: A charity trustee appointed by a local school, church or local authority and a decision is required on a matter which affects both the charity and the other organisation.

- ii. Personal conflict: When you might not be able to do what is best for the charity because it conflicts with your own personal or business interest in relation to that matter.

For example: When a charity (i.e. the College) is considering a contract with a business and one of the charity trustees is also a director of that business, or of a competing business.

In both cases, the charity trustee duties require you to act in the interests of the charity.

- 5.3 The term 'conflict of interest' can cover a range of situations and may also be called a 'conflict of roles' or 'conflict of duty'.

Examples (drawn from those provided by OSCR) wherein:

- A charity trustee could derive financial benefit from a decision the charity has to make.
- A charity trustee is discussing a contract or business arrangement with an organisation linked to the trustee's family.
- A charity trustee is also an employee of a company with which the charity has business links.
- An employee, or potential employee, of the charity is connected to one of the charity trustees.
- A trustee of two or more charities are in competition with each other for the same grant(s) or funding.
- A trustee of a charity that gives out grants and a trustee of another charity is applying for one of these grants.
- A trustee of a charity that is part of a group structure is on the board of the parent charity.
- A trustee of a charity is also a service user or customer.
- A charity trustee is applying for a job in the charity.

6. Responsibilities

- 6.1 Upon appointment each Board member will make a full written disclosure of interests, such as relationships and posts held, including any that could potentially result in a conflict of interest. This written disclosure will be kept on file, published on the College website, and will be updated annually or as and when appropriate.
- 6.2 In the course of meetings or activities, Board members will disclose any interests in a transaction or decision where there may be a conflict between the Colleges' best interests and the Board member's best interests, or a conflict between the best interests of two organisations that the Board members is involved with. If in doubt the potential conflict must be declared anyway, and clarification sought.
- 6.3 If a Board member suspects they may be, or may potentially be in a position of conflict of interest, or if there may be the possibility of this being perceived as such, the Board member concerned must raise the matter with the Chair of the Board, failing which, the College Secretary.

The Procedure comprises four key steps (Ref. OSCR.org.uk/charities/guidance):

1. Identify
2. Manage
3. Record
4. Learn

4.1.1 Identify

- Ensure the Conflict of Interest Policy is regularly reviewed, and that Board members fully understand what constitutes a conflict.
- Ensure that the College's Standing Orders indicate how conflicts are managed.
- Keep the Register of Interests up to date by annual review
- Have an item in respect of conflict of interest declaration at the top of each Board and Board Committee agenda.
- Board members to declare a conflict of interest as soon as one becomes evident, either actual, potential, or perceived.
- In case of doubt, Board members to discuss any perceived or potential conflict of interest with the Board chair.

4.1.2 Manage

- Ensure the Conflict of Interest Procedure is regularly reviewed, and that Board members are familiar with it.
- Apply the Conflict of Interest Policy and Procedure whenever there is a conflict or potential conflict.
- Decide if the person(s) with a conflict of interest should be involved in any discussions or decisions about the situation – if it is decided they should be involved be prepared to justify that decision.
- Where there is a conflict, make sure that decisions are taken in the charity's interests.
- Make sure that the Board of Management can still undertake its responsibilities even if a number of charity trustees have to withdraw.

4.1.3 Record

- Keep a written record of the situation and any steps taken by the Board of Management, the Chair, and/or the College Secretary, including:
 - Recording whom the conflict affected.
 - Recording when the conflict was identified and declared.
 - Recording what was discussed and decided.

- Recording who withdrew from the decisions and how the remaining charity trustees made a decision in the best interests of the charity.
- Maintaining the charity's register of interests.

4.1.4 Learn

- Learn from the experience, make improvements to the College's policy and procedures and where necessary seek professional advice.
- Where conflicts of interest arise frequently and a number of Board members (charity trustees) must withdraw from discussion, the Board of Management should consider whether the make up of the Board is preventing the effective management of the College.
- Note that the regional strategic body (GCRB) has the power to remove any Board member who is "unable or unfit to discharge the member's functions" (Ref. Schedule 2 to the 1992 Act as amended by the Post-16 legislation: Section 5B. Section 24 of the 1992 Act: Mismanagement by Boards).

4.2. Records

Record	Record Format	Record Holder	Retention Period
