

Cooking with Friends - Guest Chef Dinner • Jean-Paul Giraud

Coming from a French/ Welsh background and a family of chefs Jean-Paul has been a Chef for over thirty years. Jean-Paul's career spans from international to independent restaurants and hotel chains. He has worked as a chef for international royalty and has always taken pride in his father's French heritage and classic food style. Now working in the historic building that is Hutcheson's City Grill, he enjoys working with the best of Scottish seasonal produce.