Portree born Calum has been developing his art since the age of 14 when he started washing dishes in the Cuillin Hills Hotel. His skills were honed under the tutelage of Gary Maclean at City of Glasgow College and further refined in the kitchens of One Devonshire Gardens in Glasgow and Kinloch Lodge on Skye. Calum's biggest accolade to date was when he was awarded three AA rosettes at the age of 26, as head chef of Ullinish Lodge. He recently opened his own restaurant Edinbane Lodge on the Isle of Skye.
