

Workshop C

Laila El Metoui: LGBT - strategies for the classroom

Laila is an extremely well organised manager with ten years' experience managing English (ESOL) and pastoral curriculum; with a strong drive for innovation. Her 24 years teaching experience includes a very broad range of EFL and ESOL learners in Further Education and grass root community projects. Other experience includes leading LGBT integration projects, setting up the London branch for NATECLA and volunteering for Action for ESOL.

She has a genuine passion for adult education and is a respected ESOL specialist in the UK. Her energy and commitment to social justice combined with her strong work ethics make her a strong candidate for this position.

Her writing credits include publication of LGBTIQ+ teaching resources, articles in the press and academic journals. She gives regular public talks and presentations at conferences and seminars

Workshop Abstract

During the workshop participants will be encouraged to reflect on their own LGBT inclusion practice in their classrooms. We will explore strategies to be more inclusive of LGBTIQ+ people and examine practical examples of how to embed it within ESOL . We will also identify strategies to challenge discrimination
