

Gilly Salmon

Will the 'Fourth' will be with you?

Session description

An exploration of practical vision in the uncertain post-Covid education era. Gilly Salmon points to four key thresholds to harness and 'gee up' readily available technology to support our mission (goals, vision...) and promote even more excellence in the service of learning and student experience. She encourages us to together create our preferred, viable, and sustainable futures.
