

Cooking with Friends - Guest Chef Dinner • Kenneth Hett

Kenneth is a multi-award winning chef and educator, Kenneth started his career working in some of Scotland's finest country houses before moving into education. His current role is curriculum head at the City of Glasgow College where he oversees the provision of Higher National Diploma for Professional Cookery and Patisserie. He is also an incredible coach in culinary competition, over many years he has helped dozens of students achieve gold medals all over the world. He is also a patisserie coach for WorldSkills UK. Being one of Scotland's best sugar and chocolate experts Kenneth can often be found demonstrating his skills all around the country at exhibitions and shows.